

Jury Verdicts & Settlements

Advanced Search Fields

Preliminary	JAS OH Ref. No. 234395WL, 2007 WL 5325764 (Ohio Com.Pl.) (Verdict and Settlement Summary)	Citation
	Court of Common Pleas of Ohio.
	SUSAN M. TUCK v. CHAYA LEVITANSKY ← Party Name
	CV-06-581638 ← Docket Number
	DATE OF VERDICT/SETTLEMENT: August 16, 2007
	TOPIC: MOTOR VEHICLE AUTO ACCIDENT - INTERSECTION - RIGHT-OF-WAY ← Topic
	SUMMARY:
	Result: Verdict: $3,557
	EXPERT WITNESSES:
	Plaintiff's: Robert Mark Fumich, M.D. - Orthopedist - Mayfield Heights, OH ← Expert Witness
	ATTORNEY:
	Plaintiff's: Charles M. Young, Cleveland ← Attorney
	Defendant's: Todd M. Haemmerle, Cleveland ← Attorney
	JUDGE: Richard M. Markus ← Judge
	RANGE AMOUNT: $1-49,999
	STATE: Ohio
	COUNTY: Cuyahoga ← County
Injury	ALLEGED INJURY: Fractured tooth, aggravation of coccyx fracture, lumbar sprain, aggravation of lumbar facet arthritis, right wrist sprain, vision floaters, aggravation of preexisting cervical degenerative disease and cervical radiculopathy. Plaintiff also claimed some disability, pain and suffering, and emotional and psychological injuries. She sought $25,000 in medical specials.
Summary	SUMMARY:
	Plaintiff Information:
	Age: 49
	Sex: F
	Marital Status: Married
Text	FACTS:
	A driver claimed multiple injuries following an intersection collision. Liability for the accident was disputed. The case was presented to a Cuyahoga County jury, who awarded plaintiff $3,557 in damages.
	In September 2001, Plaintiff Susan Tuck was driving through a Cleveland intersection controlled by a traffic light. Her vehicle was struck broadside by a vehicle operated by Defendant Chaya Levitansky.
	Plaintiff alleged defendant was negligent in failing to stop at the red light and yield the right-of-way. Plaintiff claimed she suffered numerous injuries as a direct result of the collision.	